Dear Parent

Important News: Are you interested in training to become a primary school teacher?

A good proportion of our local primary schools are part of a growing number of schools that are leading the way for more school-led teacher training. This is really important to us because it means we can choose the very best talent and develop them into teachers. Being able to choose who we train as teachers helps us in delivering the best outcomes for the students at our local schools.

There are vacancies now to start training from September 2015 and the Teaching School leading our local alliance is very interested to hear from you if you are thinking of becoming a teacher, or know someone who is. They are looking for people who have (or will have) a degree, have a passion for teaching and want to inspire young people to fulfil their potential.

They are hosting a series of open days and would like you to come in and have a chat with them about the exciting teacher training opportunities available. The recruiter Yarrow Teaching School Alliance can be contacted at b.golding@st-georges.lancs.sch.uk for advice on availability of the open days. The sessions will provide you with support and guidance on your application form and offer you school experience if you just want a taster of what teaching could be like.

For any further information on what becoming a teacher might involve more generally, you can also visit <http://www.education.gov.uk/get-into-teaching> you can also visit www.yarrowteachingschoolalliance.co.uk

They look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
