Other School Behaviour Expectations

Healthy eating and drinking

- Holy Cross supports and promotes healthy eating and drinking
- Holy Cross allows its pupils to drink water from clear containers. The school cannot sell, and does not allow, pupils to consume cans or bottles of fizzy drinks. Pupils seen in possession of fizzy drinks will have the product confiscated and contents disposed of
- Chewing gum is forbidden

Selling Goods

- The governing body of Holy Cross permits the selling of specified items at given times throughout the year
- Unless a pupil has permission from the governing body, they are not allowed to sell any goods on school premises
- Any goods being sold will be confiscated and given to charity
- The school reserves the right to contact the police to assist in dealing with any pupil found repeatedly selling goods on school grounds
- Appropriate school sanctions will be applied to pupils selling goods

After School Detentions

- Holy Cross has a policy operating after school detentions
- The Education Act (2011) allows schools to detain pupils for discipline reasons. Holy Cross will provide at least 24 hours' notice of after school detentions being given
- The school is not obliged to replace after school detentions with lunchtime detentions. If there is a pressing reason why a pupil cannot attend, a parent/carer must contact the teacher to arrange a new date for the after-school detention

Drugs

- Holy Cross has a zero-tolerance approach to drugs
- Pupils in possession, using or selling drugs on school premises will be permanently excluded

Smoking/e-Cigarettes

- Holy Cross, in line with current legislation, is a non-smoking school
- Smoking is not permitted in any part of the school's premises, when travelling to or from school or when travelling to, during, or travelling back from any school visit or out of school activity
- Pupils found smoking will be subject to an after-school detention. In case of repeat offenders, further sanctions up to and including exclusion will be applied
- E-cigarettes/liquids brought into school will be confiscated and returned at the end of each term if requested by parents

Absence from School grounds

- Pupils are not allowed off school premises during school hours
- In exceptional circumstances, the Headteacher may grant permission for pupils to leave school at lunchtime
- Any pupil given permission must conform to the conditions listed on the permission letter
- Permission can be withdrawn if the conditions are not upheld

The Headteacher's decision on all matters is final.
